

[Fisher, Mehetable Underwood]

Mrs. W. Romaine Fisher

Mrs. Mehetable Underwood Fisher, 86, widow of W. Romaine Fisher, formerly of 3 Court Street died Sunday afternoon [13 Sep 1953] after a long illness.

She was born in Aurelius and resided in Auburn for the past 65 years.

Mrs. Fisher was a typesetter for the Cayuga County News and for a Seneca Falls newspaper. She was a member of the First Universalist Church.

Surviving her are four nieces, Mrs. Clifford [Grace B.] Watson of Germantown, Pa., Mrs. J. R. [Mattie A.] Davis of Union Springs, and Mrs. J. Max [Isabel A.] Coapman and Mrs. D. L. [Frances H.] Hoskins of Aurelius and two nephews, Benjamin G. Webster of Auburn and Henry U. Webster of Aurelius.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Lester E. Brew Funeral Chapel, with the Rev. George E. Greenough of the First Universalist Church officiating. Burial will be in Throopsville Rural Cemetery.

The Citizen Advertiser, Auburn, Cayuga Co. NY, Mon. 14 Sep 1953

W. R. Fisher's Widow Dies at Age of 86

Mrs. Mehetable Fisher, 86, widow of W. Romaine Fisher, died Sunday [13 Sep 1953] at Spring Lake, where she had lived 3½ months. Her home for 65 years was in Auburn. A native of Aurelius, she worked 22 years as a typesetter for the old Cayuga County News, a weekly paper, and a Seneca Falls newspaper. She leaves four nieces and two nephews. Services were Wednesday at the Brew funeral chapel.

The Cayuga Chief, Weedsport, Cayuga Co. NY, Thu. 17 Sep 1953