

[Fisk, Emma F. Bond]

CHURCH WORKER CALLED BY DEATH

LYNDONVILLE, March 27.—Mrs. Emma F. Fisk, widow of William Fisk, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Franklin Houseman, South Lyndonville road, following a stroke suffered two weeks ago.

Mrs. Fisk was born in Shelby, November 8, 1866, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Bond. She was a member of the Universalist church at Ridgeway Corners, where she was active in church and social affairs.

Mr. Fisk died nine months ago. They had been married 52 years and celebrated their golden wedding two years ago. Besides her daughter she leaves one son, Leo Fisk, at home; five grandchildren; and three sisters, Mrs. Nellie Algord, of Friendship, N.Y.; Mrs. Belle Grimes, of Albion, and Mrs. Jessie Boyd, of Medina.

Funeral services will be held from the home of the daughter tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be in Bates cemetery. The Rev. Donald K. Evans, pastor of the Universalist church, will officiate.

Niagara Falls Gazette, Niagara Falls NY, Wed. 27 Mar 1935

Transcribed on 19 Feb 2010 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY