

[Fisk, Paul]

PAUL FISK

Paul Fisk, 83, a well known resident of Fort Plain, died Saturday at his home, Reid street. Mr. Fisk had been in failing health for some time, due to his age. He was born Nov. 30, 1852, in the town of Canajoharie, a son of Christian and Margaret Sticht Fisk, and had always resided in this section. Mr. Fisk was a well known carpenter and builder and built a number of residences and several business blocks here. For a number of years, up to a short time ago, he had been employed at the Beech-Nut plant, Canajoharie.

He is survived by his wife [Carrie]; one daughter, Miss Hazel Fisk, Fort Plain; one son, Jay Fisk, Boston, Mass.; one sister, Mrs. Catherine Coursen, Fort Plain; one brother, Christian Fisk, St. Petersburg, Fla. The funeral (private) was held yesterday from the home at 2 P.M., the Rev. G. [Gustave] H. Ulrich, pastor of the Universalist church officiating. Interment was in the Fort Plain cemetery.
