

[Fitch, Rose Burritt]

MRS. ROSE FITCH

Mrs. Rose Fitch passed away Saturday morning at West Winfield, where she has [sic] spent the past three months. Mrs. Fitch was born in Burlington, N.Y., September 23, 1877, daughter of Henry and Viola Nelson Burritt.

She was united in marriage with Jasper D. Fitch, who died several years ago.

She was a loyal member of the Universalist Church of Schuyler Lake, and was always interested in the better things of life.

By her request, Mrs. Lynn Washburn and Miss Sarah Washburn sang "He Knows It All." Her pastor, Rev. Leonard of Morris, was the officiating clergyman.

Mrs. Fitch is survived by her mother, Mrs. Viola Telford; one sister, Mrs. Wilburn Bliss, of Toddsville; several nephews and nieces, also an aunt, Mrs. Hattie Harrington, of Earlville.

The funeral was held from her home here Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The beautiful flowers were silent tributes of the esteem of friends and relatives.

The bearers by her request were Clarence Talbot, Daniel Talbot, Howard Newton and David Harrington.

The funeral was private, conducted by Clarence Houk, and burial in our local cemetery.
