

[Flagler, Mary Anna Griswold]

CORFU

Mrs. Mary Anna Flagler, aged 83, years, an old and respected resident of this place, died at her home on East Main St. at 10 a.m. Wednesday, after a long, lingering illness. Mrs. Flagler, whose maiden name was Griswold, was born in Alexander on Oct. 21st, 1822. On Christmas day, 1855, she was married to Mr. James Harvey [Hervey] Flagler, who survives her. For the past 25 years Mrs. Flagler has made this place her home and being a woman of a kind, pleasing nature, she had many friends, who will greatly mourn her loss.

Besides her aged husband she is survived by one brother, Samuel Griswold of this place.

The funeral will be held from the house at 2 p.m. Friday, Rev. A. [Artemus] L. Partridge [Universalist] officiating. Interment at Evergreen Hill cemetery.

The Batavia Times, Batavia NY, Fri. 8 Jun 1906

Transcribed on 6 Jan 2016 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY