

[Fletcher, Monroe]

SUDDEN DEATH IN MOHAWK

Monroe Fletcher, a most estimable young man, of Mohawk, died very suddenly yesterday of Bright's disease. He was employed as engineer in the mill of the Broomhall milling and malting company, and was at his work as usual Tuesday. He was 24 years of age. He leaves a wife, who was formerly Miss Hilts, of Herkimer. The funeral will be held from the Universalist Church to-morrow at 2 P.M.

Evening Sun, Little Falls NY, Thu. 14 Mar 1895

Mohawk.

—Monroe Fletcher, a very estimable young man, who has been acting as engineer for the Broomhall Milling & Malting Co., up to Tuesday night, died Wednesday morning of Bright's disease, age 24 years. Mr. Fletcher had only been married about a year, and his young wife has the sympathy of the people. The funeral will be attended from the Universalist church at 2 p.m. Friday, and will be conducted by the Odd Fellows Lodge, of which the deceased was a member.

Ilion Citizen, Ilion NY, Fri. 15 Mar 1895

Transcribed on 24 Jan 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY