

[Flickinger, Louise Nassal]

Mrs. Louise Flickinger, wife of the late Smith M. Flickinger, founder of the Red & White Food Stores, died yesterday at her home, 68 Rumsey Road, after an illness of several months. A lifelong resident of Buffalo, she was active in the work of the Universalist Church of the Messiah for more than 50 years. She also was active in the Coterie, women's literary club.

Private funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon, with burial in Forest Lawn.

Born in Buffalo on July 27, 1864, the daughter of Carl and Helen Nassal, she was married to Mr. Flickinger in 1892. Her husband died in 1939. Mrs. Flickinger is survived by two sons, Burt P. Flickinger, president of the S. M. Flickinger Company, Inc., wholesale supply house, and Glenn W. Flickinger, executive vice-president and treasurer of the company; four grandsons, Burt P., Jr., Peter B., Thomas R. and William S. Flickinger, and two brothers, William P. and Albert H. Nassal, both of Buffalo.

Buffalo Courier-Express, Buffalo NY, Tue. 18 May 1943

MRS. SMITH M. FLICKINGER

Mrs. Smith M. Flickinger of Buffalo died at her home on May 17 after a long illness. Her husband's death occurred on April 2, 1939. They were loyal and generous members of the Church of the Messiah [Universalist]. Dr. Bruce Swift conducted the funeral service in her late home. She is survived by two sons and two brothers, William P. Nassal and Albert H. Nassal. The funeral service was private.

Empire State Universalist, Cortland NY, June 1939