MRS. JULIA FLUHRER

Albion, Feb. 26—Word was received here today of the death of Mrs. Julia Fluhrer, 90, at the home of her son, Howard Fluhrer, Oneonta. She was the widow of the late Rev. Charles Fluhrer, the first minister of the Universalist Church of Albion which was built 35 years ago by the generosity of George M. Pullman, the sleeping car magnate, and she was the mother of the late Gerald B. Fluhrer, one time County Judge of Orleans County, and Democratic leader. She is survived by one son, Howard Fluhrer of Oneonta. Funeral at the Universalist Church here at 10 o'clock Friday with Rev. L. H. Robinson of Albion officiating. Burial in Mount Albion.
