

[Foote, Aurelia Johnson]

BRIDGEWATER

[On] Monday evening, Feb. 10th, after a long and trying sickness, Mrs. Geo. Foote passed quietly into the beyond. She was in her 64th year, a native of our village and had made a life-long record for being ever ready to lend a helping hand to those in trouble and an open door for those in need. She was for many years a member of the choir and a devoted worker in the Universalist church. Her father, Francis Johnson, died when she was two years old and her aged mother, Mrs. Orissa Waldo, in her 86th year, now lives in Marshalltown, Iowa, which is also the home of Mrs. Foote's only surviving [half] sister, Mrs. J.[James] S. [Fidelia "Delia" Waldo] Haskins. Besides her husband Mrs. Foote leaves one only child, Mrs. E. M. [Anna] Rising, who has been untiring in caring for her mother in her long affliction. There is also one little granddaughter, Gladys E. Rising. Rev. C. H. Vail of Richfield Springs officiated at her funeral service Wednesday afternoon.

Richfield Springs Mercury, Richfield Springs NY, Thu. 2 Mar 1905

Transcribed on 14 Nov 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY