

[Force, Julia C.]

In Rochester, N.Y., March 14, Mrs. JULIA C. FORCE, wife of John Force, aged 31 years. Mrs. Force's health began to decline last fall, she having taken a severe cold, but it was not until a few weeks since, when she returned from a visit to her sister in Oneida co., that it became evident consumption would soon terminate her earthly life. She was much distressed at first, to learn that she must so soon leave her kind friends and children, but she became reconciled, expressed her willingness to go, and the hope of meeting all her friends in a better and happier world. She was very much respected by all her friends and acquaintances, and her absence is much lamented.

Christian Ambassador, Auburn NY, 1 Apr 1854

Transcribed on 19 Jan 2007 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY