

[Ford, Anna Mae]

MRS. DAVID E. FORD

Mrs. Anna Mae Ford, Middleville, had been in poor health for the past year or more but friends did not realize that her condition was serious. Her death on December 18 at the Memorial Hospital in Herkimer came as a terrible shock to her relatives and many friends. She was a most capable and efficient woman, doing her work in the home or in the organizations with which she was affiliated, wholeheartedly, and she did this until her entrance into the hospital. She was a member of the Universalist church in Middleville and most loyal in her support. The memorial service was conducted in her home on December 20 by Dr. John Murray Atwood of St. Lawrence University, brother-in-law. She is survived by her husband, David E. Ford; a son, Dexter who is a Sophomore in St. Lawrence University; a daughter, Betty Ann who is in her thirteenth year; a sister and two brothers.
