

[Ford, Annis]

DEATHS.

In Antwerp, June 2d, of consumption, Mrs. ANNIS, wife of J. [John] C. Foster, Esq., aged 37 years. Esq. F., having only lost his son, Charles C., six weeks previous, feels very deeply afflicted. This, too, is the second partner he has been called to give to death, and very much do we feel to sympathise with him—most respectfully do we beseech him to look to God and trust in the assurance of his love. The funeral of Sister Foster was attended at the parish church in Antwerp Village, and an unusual concourse of people listened to the word of life.

W. [William] H. Waggoner

Evangelical Magazine & Gospel Advocate, Utica NY, Fri. 5 Jul 1839
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 7 Sep 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY