

[Ford, David E.]

David E. Ford, 88; Was Director of Bank

Middleville—David E. Ford, 88, a retired electrical contractor and appliance dealer, died yesterday in Little Falls Hospital.

He was born in Middleville. He married Anna Mae Dexter in Newport. She died in 1936. He studied electricity in a technical school in Boston. He retired 10 years ago.

He was a charter member and one of the original directors of the Middleville National Bank when it opened on April 1, 1920. Since the bank merged with the Marine Midland Trust Co. of the Mohawk Valley he had served on the advisory board. He was a member of the Universalist Church.

He leaves a son, Dexter Ford, Simsbury, Conn.

A memorial service is planned for the immediate family. Cremation will take place in Waterville.

Daily Press, Utica NY, Fri. 28 Jan 1966

Transcribed on 4 Feb 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY