

[Ford, Homer G.]

The funeral of Homer G. Ford, who died Saturday at the Fox Memorial hospital following injuries which he sustained when run over by an automobile a short time ago, was held yesterday afternoon at the Chapin Memorial [Universalist] church where for many years he had been a regular attendant. The Rev. J.A. Judge officiated. Burial was in Glenwood cemetery. The pallbearers were George S. Slade, Norman H. Meagley, Albert Hutson and Charles Wright. Oneonta Lodge, 466, F.&A.M., of which Mr. Ford was a member, attended the service.

Binghamton Press, Binghamton NY, Wed. 23 Apr 1924

Transcribed on 14 Apr 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY