

[Foster, Edward R.]

WELL KNOWN MAN DEAD.

Edward R. Foster Passed Away Friday Afternoon at the Family Home

Edward R. Foster, a man whose entire life had been passed in the vicinity, departed this life, Friday afternoon. He had been a sufferer from Bright's disease for the past year and for some time past it has been known that he could not recover. He was a man with many good qualities and will be greatly missed by a large number of friends.

Mr. Foster was born in Willing, November 21, 1841. Louisa Livermore became his wife, December 24, 1864. He was a farmer for many years, retiring some years ago and locating in this village.

The wife, two sons, one daughter and one sister survive him—Clark of Greenwood and Edwin and Mrs. C. S. Bloss of this place. The sister is Mrs. Byron Ackerman.

The funeral was held from the home, Sunday, Rev. J. [James] D. Herrick [pastor of the Universalist Church, of which Foster was a member] officiating. Burial was in Rural cemetery.

Those from away who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Church Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bundy, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton McAdams, Mrs. O. J. Mason, Bath; Elmer Foster, Edward Foster, Mr. M. Hughner, Hornell; Mrs. Inez Foster and son Archie, Mrs. Harry Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Campbell, Shongo; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Reynolds, Lester Reynolds, Alfred; Mr. and Mrs. George Harris, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. William Richmond, Wellsville; Lawrence and LaVern Livermore, Arkport; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Updike, Greenwood; James Richmond, Genesee; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Livermore, Anna and Flora Livermore, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Ackerman, Wellsville; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Livermore, Leland and Pearl Livermore, Fulmer Valley; Mr. and Mrs. John Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Greene and son, Mr. and Mrs. Devillo Livermore and daughter, Independence.
