IRVING F. FOSTER

The death of Irving F. Foster in his seventy-fifth year is a loss to Oneonta and the Chapin Memorial Universalist church. For thirty years, he was a traveling salesman for the Bass Shoe Company of Wilton, Me., having a large acquaintance in the state. He was a member and trustee of this church for many years. He is survived by his wife and several nephews and cousins. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Hugh S. Tigner of Canton, a former minister of the Oneonta church.
