

[Foster, Nancy Britt]

MRS. W. S. FOSTER

Estimable Resident Died at Her Home This Morning.

Nancy Britt, the wife of William S. Foster , died at her home, 75 Oneida street, this morning. She was born in the town of Verona, where she spent her early life and was married there to Mr. Foster. Shortly after her marriage she came to Utica and had since resided here. She was a member of the Church of the Reconciliation [Universalist] and was a woman of many pleasing traits and characteristics. She was a daughter of the late Thomas and Sara Brlitt of Verona and is survived by two sisters, Mrs. E. E. Jurden and Mrs. Caroline Hurder of Verona; two brothers, Robert Britt of Rome and William Britt of Canastota, and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. Dr. R. B. Wilson of Oriskany Falls; W. B. Foster, A. H. Foster, Miss Edith L. Foster, Fred E. Foster, Miss Florence M. Foster and Miss Mildred Foster, all of this city. Her husband also survives.
