

[Fox, Stella Warner]

MIDDLEPORT WOMAN SUCCUMBS SUDDENLY
Rites Planned Tomorrow For Mrs. Stella Fox

MIDDLEPORT, Feb. 1—Rites will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Richardson and Kneubel funeral parlors, for Mrs. Stella Fox, 49, who died suddenly Sunday evening in the home of Edward Van Dusen, Medina, of a heart attack.

Mrs. Fox was eating lunch when without warning she slumped in her chair and expired.

The Rev. Clifford R. Stetson, pastor of the Middleport Universalist church, will officiate. Burial will be in Hartland Central cemetery.

Surviving are two brothers, Charles and Lyman Warner of Vineland, N. J.; one niece, Myrtle Sarow; and one nephew, Leo Warner, both of New Jersey.

Mrs. Fox was born in Vineland, N. J., a daughter of the late James and Jenie Warner. She came to Middleport 26 years ago. She married Walter Fox, a miller, of Albion, who died about six years ago. Since the death of her husband she had made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Collins, this village. For the past year and a half she had nursed at the Van Dusen home, Medina.

She was a member of Purity Rebekah lodge, Middleport, and attended the Middleport Universalist church, being an active member of the Ladies' Auxiliary.
