

[Frank, Russell]

Frank Russell

Russell Frank, aged 50 years, died at his home, 305½ W. Liberty street, at 6:15 o'clock Wednesday evening from a complication. He had been troubled with his feet for some time. Just before coming to this city five months ago he injured one of his large toes and proud flesh developed after an operation on the injured member. He was born in Pennsylvania. On September 9 last he was married to Mrs. Alice Crider of this city, who survives. He leaves two children by a former marriage, Walter of Olean and Miss Maud Frank, who lives in Virginia, and two stepchildren, Harry and Miss Florence Crider, both of Rome. Mr. Frank was a member of the Carpenter's Union and he attended the Universalist Church. During his residence in this city he made a large number of friends who will deeply regret his death.

Daily Sentinel, Rome NY, Thu. 29 Jan 1914

Obsequies

The funeral of Russell Frank was held from the family residence, 305½ W. Liberty street, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Skeels, Universalist minister, of Utica. A quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winkelmeyer, Mrs. G. C. Hossefelt and Price Davis sang In the Hour of Trial and My God, My Father, While I Stray. There were a number of handsome floral offerings. A large delegation of the local Carpenters' Union attended the funeral in a body and the bearers were six members of the union: O. W. Mitchell, Edward Grems, D. W., F. G. and C. F. Murphy, and Bernard Audas. The remains were placed in J. B. Wiggins & Son's vault.

Daily Sentinel, Rome NY, Sat. 31 Jan 1914