

[French, Elmer]

East Perry

Elmer French, 87 years of age, who has lived with his daughter [and son-in-law], Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schenck of this vicinity, for a good many years past, died at their home after only a week's illness on Sunday morning. He had always been quite active and was a regular attendant at the Universalist church for 50 years or more. Burial services were held Tuesday afternoon, with Dr. [Warren] Brigham officiating. His son and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Earl French, came on Monday, and are staying this week with Mrs. Schenck. He was well known hereabouts and will be sorely missed.
