

[Ganger, Christopher]

Christopher Ganger

Dolgeville—Christopher Ganger, 83, Salisbury, died Aug. 28, 1945 in Charlotte's Nursing Home, Little Falls, where he had been a patient since Monday morning.

He was born June 14, 1862, in Leipzig, Germany, the son of John and Catherine Ganger. He had resided in Salisbury since coming to this country and for many years was caretaker of the Salisbury Center Cemetery. On June 6, 1910 he was married to Louise Grassell who died several years ago.

Surviving are three sons, William, John and Earl, and one daughter, Mrs. Otto Bahr, all of Salisbury; two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held from his home in Salisbury at 2 p.m. Friday, the Rev. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton, of the Universalist Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Salisbury Center Cemetery.

Daily Press, Utica NY, Wed. 29 Aug 1945

Transcribed on 27 Feb 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY