

[Gardner, Henrietta "Nettie" Sargent]

MRS. DELOSS GARDNER

After sixteen years of failing health, Mrs. Deloss Gardner died at her Grove street home Thursday evening of last week at 9:15, as a result of a complication of diseases.

Nettie (Sargent) Gardner, one of the nine children of Marshall and Henrietta (Lewis) Sargent, was born June 16, 1868 in the town of Morris and in that township she spent her entire life, with the exception of one year.

She married Mr. Gardner of Morris March 27, 1886. To them were born five children, Henry Gardner of Waterville, Marshall Gardner of South New Berlin, Mrs. Reuben Miller of Pittsfield, Weldon Gardner of Morris and Ethel Gardner, who died in 1904, at the age of seven.

Mrs. Gardner was a woman whose enthusiastic interest and desire to be of service to others was marked. She was a devoted wife and a kind and indulgent mother. Throughout her long years of invalidism she was cheerful and uncomplaining and she leaves a host of friends who will cherish her memory.

Immediate surviving relatives are the husband; one daughter and three sons; two brothers, Ira Sargent of Bainbridge, Eugene Sargent of Pittsfield; thirteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

The funeral services, conducted by the Rev. F. G. Leonard of the Universalist church, of which the deceased had long been a member, were held at Sloan's Funeral parlors Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was in the family plot in the new part of Hillington cemetery.
