DANIEL F. GARRETT

Daniel F. Garrett, 83, prominent Albion resident, died Sunday at his house here. He was born in Kendall and had spent his entire life in Orleans County. Mr. Garrett was a Democrat in politics and had served as custom house officer at Point Breeze during Cleveland's two terms of office. He had also been a member of the Board of Education of Albion and served two terms as village assessor. He had been president and director of the Orleans County Agricultural Society. He was a member of the Pullman Memorial Universalist Church and for several years a trustee of that institution. He was also a member of Renovation Lodge, F. and A.M., and of the Elks.

He is survived by his widow, Eva Garrett; a daughter, Mrs. Willis Weaver of Kent; a brother, Melvin Garrett of Lyndonville and a granddaughter. Funeral services were conducted from the home at four o'clock Tuesday and Masonic services were held at the grave in Mt. Albion.
