

[Garrison, Frederick J.]

Frederick J. Garrison, 84, of 64 Avondale Pk., who once operated a grocery and meat market at Monroe avenue and Union street for 25 years, died yesterday (May 8, 1957) in Monroe County Home and Infirmary.

A native of Rochester, Mr. Garrison was a graduate of School 7 and the old Rochester Free academy. When he was 19 he was treasurer of a gold mine in Columbia, South America.

He returned to Rochester to operate the market. After he closed the market, located at the present site of Sears Roebuck & Co., he worked at the Willsea Works until his retirement 10 years ago.

He was a member of Yonnodio Lodge, F&AM, and the Universalist Church, where he was a trustee and chairman of the stewards.

Surviving are his wife, Mary B. Garrison, and two nephews. A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Hedges Memorial Chapel, 271 University Ave. Burial will be at the convenience of the family.

Times-Union, Rochester NY, Sat. 9 May 1957

Transcribed on 30 Mar 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY