

[Gay, Lillie L. Salls]

MRS. LILLIE L. GAY

Mrs. Lillie L. Gay, native of Potsdam died November 27 at her home in Seattle, after an illness of many years. She was the daughter of Enock Briggs Sals and Lovina C. Sals, of Canton. She was born March 2, 1854, at Potsdam, where her childhood was spent, moving to Canton later.

She married George Lewis Gay in 1877 and they moved to Spokane in 1888, where Mr. Gay, a real estate man died several years ago. Mrs. Gay was a lifelong Universalist and at different times filled the pulpit of that church. She also took an active part in public affairs as long as her health permitted and she never lost her interest.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Carrie S. McClusky and Mrs. Lena A. Corby, of Seattle; a niece Mrs. Albert G. Starkey, W. 1608 Boone Ave., and Mrs. D. T. Martin, Molson, Wash., and several nieces and nephews in New York.
