

[Gaylord, Martha E. Todd]

TODDSVILLE

Local friends and former neighbors learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Martha Todd Gaylord at Oneonta last Thursday at her late home at Oneonta. Mrs. Gaylord was a native of Toddsville, but has for many years resided at Oneonta. A sister, Miss Florence Todd, is a local resident. Many expressions of sympathy are heard for the bereaved family.

Mrs. Martha Todd Gaylord

The funeral of Mrs. Martha Todd Gaylord was held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from her late home at 87 Center street, Oneonta, with the Rev. J. [Joseph] A. Judge of the Chapin Memorial [Universalist] church of which she had been an attendant for more than forty years, officiating. The committal service was also held at the home. The body was placed in the vault at Riverside cemetery but later will be buried in Lakewood cemetery at Cooperstown.

Among the many floral tributes sent for the service were pieces from the following organizations: from the Chapin Memorial church, from the Ladies' Aid society, the Social club, and the Sunday school of that church, from the Star laundry, and from neighbors.

The bearers were: H. V. Fluhrer, Carr Hotaling, Lee Hamm, and J. Henry Potter. Among those from out of the city in attendance at the services were Glenn Todd of Little Falls and Cuyler Carr of Cooperstown.
