

[Gaylord, Maud Todd]

Funeral Sunday for Miss Gaylord
Binghamton Press Bureau

Oneonta—Funeral services for Miss Maud Todd Gaylord of 22½ Ford Avenue, who was found dead in bed Thursday by city police, will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2 p.m. at the Universalist Church here.

Death was attributed to natural causes by police who investigated following a call from Ackshand Knitting Co. when Miss Gaylord failed to report for work. Miss Gaylord would have been 77 this month.

Miss Gaylord was treasurer of [the] Universalist Church Sunday School and had been a resident of Oneonta for many years.

The Rev. Gale Bascombe, pastor of the Universalist Church, will officiate at church services tomorrow. Burial will be in Lakewood Cemetery, Cooperstown.
