

[Gibbs, Mary Elizabeth Reed]

Mary E. Gibbs

Mary E. Gibbs, widow of Myron B. Gibbs and daughter of the late James Reed and Maria Hinkston, was born in the town of Barre Sept. 6th, 1835, where the greater part of her life was spent. During her active years she was ever ready to administer to the sick and needy. The greater part of the last 17 years of her life she was a suffering invalid. Although tender care smoothed her pathway and thoughtful acts of kindness from her many friends strewed roses of sympathy thereon, her relief from pain was anticipated and she met her reward on the morning of July 24th. Besides her son [George] and two daughters [Ida and Alice] she leaves one sister [Helen], one half-sister [Emma], nine grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. The funeral services were held at her late home in Albion on July 24th, Rev. C. [Charles] H. Vail, pastor of the Pullman [Memorial Universalist] church officiating. Interment at Albion cemetery.
