

[Gibbs, Mary Stanton]

Mrs. Mary Gibbs.

Mrs. Mary Stanton Gibbs died at the home of her son, Gerald G. Gibbs in Westfield, September 26, 1909. She was born in Sherman, June 18, 1856, being the only daughter of Charles and Maria Stanton. She was married to Charles F. Gibbs December 1, 1875, who died May 24, 1904. Four children survive her, one dying in infancy. They are G. G. Gibbs of Westfield; Mrs. Sophia Harvey, Glenn and George Gibbs of Chautauqua. Three brothers also remain: David Stanton of North Dakota, Lyman and Charles Stanton of French Creek. She had been ill for three years or more and at times a great sufferer, which she bore with patience and resignation. She united with the Universalist church, April 19, 1908, the pastor, Rev. A. [Albert] R. Fiske conducting the impressive service in her sick room.

She will be greatly missed by her friends and neighbors, and especially in her home, for she was ever a kind and indulgent mother, choosing to spend her life with her children, seeking to teach them the way of right living.

The remains were brought here Tuesday and the funeral was held at the Universalist church at eleven o'clock, Rev. O. F. Alvord officiating. Burial in the cemetery at this place.
