

[Gilbert, Anna Reed]

GILBERT

Mrs. Anna Gilbert, widow of George Gilbert, passed away at her home here, Monday morning, after a long period of failing health. She was born in Richmond, March 12, 1863, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Reed of that town. Since her marriage she had resided here. She was librarian for the Bristol Free Library for several years, resigning five years ago, owing to poor health. She leaves four sons, John R., Frank and Leighton Gilbert of this place and Harry Gilbert of Germania, Pa., seven grandchildren and one great-granddaughter; two sisters, Mrs. M. J. Waterbury of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. S. L. Westhafer of Los Angeles, Calif.; two brothers, John Reed of Seattle, Wash., and Robert Reed of Richmond. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at the Universalist church, following a prayer service at the house. The Rev. Harry M. Wright, pastor, officiated. Interment was made in Bristol Evergreen Cemetery.
