

[Gilbert, George G.]

Bristol, N. Y.—The death of George Gilbert, which was noted last week, occurred at his home on Wednesday night. Six years ago he suffered a stroke, since which he had been partially paralyzed. Although able to be about, he had required daily care and assistance. Two weeks ago he had another stroke, which paralyzed the throat. He was the only son of John and Victoria Gilbert, and was born in Bristol 54 years ago. He lived his whole life here. He was married to Anna Reed of Richmond on December 26, 1887. Four sons were born to them, John B., Frank, Harry and Leighton, all of whom, with his wife, mother and one sister, Mrs. Leighton Pierce, of Canandaigua, survive. In his health, he was a kind and loving husband and father. The funeral, which was in charge of Camp of Modern Woodmen, of which he and two of his sons were members, was held from the Universalist church on Saturday afternoon, Rev. J. L. Wolbach officiating. Burial was in Evergreen cemetery.
