

[Gilbert, Joseph]

HENDERSON

—Joseph Gilbert died suddenly on Wednesday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank [Alta] Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Hall drove to Adams and upon their return found their father dead at the barn where he had gone to feed the horse. Mr. Gilbert had been out of health for over a year but was able to be about the house. A heart trouble was the cause of his death. His funeral was held from his daughter's home, Sunday at 12 o'clock, Mr. [Weston] Cate, pastor of the Universalist church, conducting the service. The burial was at Roberts Corners. Mr. Gilbert was 66 years of age.

Jefferson County Journal, Adams NY, Wed. 13 Sep 1911

Transcribed on 21 Nov 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY