

[Gillis, Belinda Wilmarth]

DIED,—Of consumption, at Victor, on the 11th ult. [11 January], Mrs. Belinda Gilliss [Gillis<sup>1</sup>], consort of Mr. S. Gilliss, of Clementville, Pennsylvania, and daughter of E. Wilmouth [Ezra Wilmarth], Esq., aged 36. In the death of Mrs. Gilliss, society has lost a faithful friend, her husband an affectionate companion, and six little sons the maternal care of a kind mother.—She bore a long and protracted sickness with a resignation which becometh a believer in that Gospel which abolishes death and brings life and immortality to light. ... The high estimation in which she was held, was evinced by the large and respectable congregation who attended, and by the tears that were shed on the gloomy day of her interment.

Evangelical Magazine and Gospel Advocate, Utica NY, Sat. 6 Feb 1830
[a Universalist newspaper]

<sup>1</sup>Per her gravestone in the Boughton Hill Cemetery in Victor, her name is spelled incorrectly in this notice and should be spelled Gillis.

Transcribed on 27 Oct 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY