

[Gillmore, Robert]

In New-Hartford, on the 29th ult. [29 Jul 1839, per his gravestone], Mr. ROBERT GILLMORE, aged 68 years. Br. Gillmore was a firm believer in God's impartial grace [Universalism], which he adorned with a well-ordered life. For many years, infirmities increased upon him, and his last illness was long and painful, which caused him to desire anxiously to be with God and at rest, where pain, sorrow and death shall never more annoy. He has left a widow, a number of children [including Almira Gilmore French] and other relatives and friends to mourn his departure. Funeral on the 30th—sermon by A. B. G. [Rev. Aaron B. Grosh].
