

[Gilmore, William H.]

Obituary.

William H. Gilmore, one of Utica's well known business men, passed away at his home, 29 Plant street, at 6 o'clock Thursday [?]. Mr. Gilmore had been ill but one week with pneumonia. While for the past few days his death had not been unexpected, the news will be sad intelligence to his wide circle of friends.

Mr. Gilmore was born in this city 49 years ago and had always resided here. He was a son of William K. Gilmore, who died but a few weeks ago. Mr. Gilmore was educated in the Utica public schools. His first business occupation was in the coal office of H. & W. K. Gilmore, where he was employed for a period of 15 years. He then associated himself with Charles Kirtland of this city and together they opened up a jewelry store at 176 Genesee street. Two years later Mr. Gilmore purchased the interest of Mr. Kirtland and for one year continued alone. Since then Mr. Gilmore had acted as manager for the Utica Coal Company, of which he was a member.

He was a man of genial disposition and was well liked by all with whom he had dealings. He was a member of Fort Schuyler Council, Royal Arcanum, and belonged to the Church of the Reconciliation [Universalist].

In the year 1876 Mr. Gilmore married Miss Emma Harrington of this city. She survives with one daughter, Miss Mae Gilmore.

Utica Sunday Tribune, Utica NY, Sun. 18 Mar 1900