

[Gimby, Almira Seckner]

CEDARVILLE
Mrs. James Gimby

Jan. 26.—At her home Saturday morning, Jan. 22d, occurred the death of Almira Seckner, wife of James Gimby. Mrs. Gimby had been in poor health for about three weeks and the end came suddenly Saturday night as a great shock to her many friends. Mrs. Gimby was born in the town of Columbia March 21, 1849. She was married to Mr. Gimby February 19, 1879 and after her marriage, went to the farm where she has since lived and where she died. Mrs. Gimby was a member of the Universalist Church at Cedarville and her life was lived in appreciation of its teachings. Besides her husband she leaves two sisters, Mrs. Uphina Edick of Ilion and Mrs. James Myers of Mohawk; two brothers, Alfred Seckner of Richfield Springs and Frank Seckner of Chepachet. The funeral services were held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock. Burial in the family plot at Cedarville.
