

[Glidden, Ethan A.]

DEATHS.

In Clarendon, N.Y., on the morning of the 16t ult., of measles, ETHAN A., eldest son of Thomas and Betsey Glidden, aged 28 years, 5 months. Thus, suddenly, has the family circle ben broken, and the bright prospects that lay just before him in life, of domestic enjoyment, and future usefulness, were rudely blasted, and fond hearts bleed for him they loved. His quiet, retiring manner and everyday good heartedness, made him friends with all who became acquainted with him. He was an honored and respected member of our Society, and ever present member of our choir. His funeral was attended at the Universalist church on the Sabbath following, by Br. H. [Henry] L. Hayward, who administered consolation to the mourning, and instruction to the sympathizing multitude, who crowded the church to its full capacity, to demonstrate their respect and regard for the departed. May that faith so clearly and forcibly presented, comfort and console their hearts, and the hearts of all who listened, and may they be admonished, that while in "the day of prosperity they rejoice, in the day of adversity they should consider."
