CLAYTON MILFORD GOODRIDGE
Father of Five Children Stricken With Death in Life's Prime

Clayton Milford Goodridge, aged 40 years, of Beach Hill near Shongo was stricken with pneumonia two weeks ago and death resulted, Tuesday, May 22.

Mr. Goodridge with his wife and family of five children lived in the Porter farm on Beach Hill. Mrs. Goodrich's maiden name was Lorena Sears and she was married to Mr. Goodridge, May 2, 1903.

Beside the wife and children Mr. Goodridge is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Goodridge, three brothers, Ray, Ezra and Willard, also two sisters, Mrs. Luna Lampe and Mrs. Cora Sears.

The funeral will be held from the late home, Friday at 12 m. Burial in Rural cemetery, Whitesville. Rev. C. [Clark] L. Paddock will officiate.

Mr. Goodridge was not a member of any church, but was a believer in the Universalist doctrine. He was a member of Greenwood I.O.O.F. With his family he at one time lived in Whitesville where he was engaged in the oil business.

The bereft family has the sympathy of many friends.
