

[Goodwin, Lyda May Strickland]

Mrs. Lyda Goodwin

Services for Mrs. Lyda Goodwin, 68, were at graveside Thursday afternoon in the Glen Wild Cemetery with the Rev. Leonard Helie of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Middletown officiating.

Mrs. Goodwin died Tuesday as a result of being dragged from her garage by her car at her home on the Glen Wild road.

Born Dec. sixth, 1899, in Lynn, Mass., she was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strickland. She was the widow of Ernest [should be Edward] Goodwin.

Mrs. Goodwin leaves three daughters: Mrs. Alice Vogel, North Carolina; Mrs. Flora Braden, Highland, Fla., Mrs. Robbin Couch, Middletown; a son Bruce, Newark, Del.; a brother, Walter Ayles, Massachusetts; six grandchildren and five great grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Bessie Kyle, Mrs. Dorothy Tarr and Mrs. Grace Bursey, all of Massachusetts.

Liberty News, Liberty NY, Thu. 18 Jul 1968

Transcribed on 20 Mar 2024 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY