

[Gould, George L.]

COOPERSTOWN.

George L. Gould, of the firm of Springlet & Gould, for many years in the clothing and tailoring business in Cooperstown, died Sunday evening after a brief illness of pneumonia, which developed after an attack of quinsy. Mr. Gould was treasurer of Thanksgiving Hospital, and was one of the most prominent and popular of the business men of the city. He is survived by his wife [Elizabeth VanHorne Gould] and two sons, George R. and Percy [W.].

Richfield Springs Mercury, Richfield Springs NY, Thu. 5 May 1910

Cooperstown, May 6.—The business places of the village were closed from 3 until 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon out of respect to the late George L. Gould, whose funeral services occurred at that hour at the residence on Nelson avenue. Rev. F. G. Herbert of the Universalist Church at Richfield Springs officiated and the interment was made in Lakewood Cemetery.

Daily Press, Utica NY, Fri. 6 May 1910

Transcribed on 28 Jan 2010 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY