

[Graves, Marilla Hixon]

___Mrs. Marilla Hixon Graves, of Overackers Corners, passed away Tuesday last, aged 64 years. She had long been a patient sufferer from an incurable disease. In a conversation with the writer recently she said "She had thought it all out and those who were left behind were the ones to be pitied the most." She is survived by her husband and one brother, Rufus Hixon, Supervisor of the town of Manchester. Funeral services were held Thursday at 1:30 p.m. at her late home, Rev. Nelson Lobdell [Universalist], of Victor, and Rev. Smith, officiating. Interment at Overackers Cemetery.
