MARVIN GRAVES AGED 80 YEARS

Resident of North Hill Died at Home of Son Following an Attack of Grip,
Saturday, July 7th—Funeral Thursday

Death claimed Martin Graves, aged 80 years, a resident of North Hill, Saturday, July 9, 1928. Mr. Graves had been a sufferer from heart disease for some time past, but last week had an attack of grip. He complained of feeling short of breath about a half hour before his demise and he walked out onto the porch seeking relief. He returned to the house and in just a few minutes passed away, at about 10 P.M.

Mr. Graves was twice married, his first [sic] wife being Ella Payne, who survives him, together with four sons, Claude of North Hill, Lorenzo and Harry of Stanards and Manley of Wellsville; also one sister, Mrs. Angeline Lord of Hornell and Willard Graves of Payneville.

The funeral service was held Tuesday, July 10, at 2 P.M., from the Whitesville Universalist church, Rev. R. S. Kellerman officiating. Burial in Rural cemetery.

Among the relatives present at the funeral from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. F. Petchy, Coudersport; Mrs. Angeline Lord of Hornell; Mr. and Mrs. Carey Davenport, Belmont.
