

[Gray, William R.]

William R. Gray

William R. Gray, a well-known citizen of Rochester, died yesterday morning at his home, No. 33 Pearl street, aged 78 years. Mr. Gray was born in Scotland and came to this [country] in 1842. He was a member of the Universalist Church, and was a regular attendant at the First Universalist Church on Clinton avenue south since it was built [in 1847]. He is survived by one son, William C. Gray, and two grandchildren.
