

[Green, Alta Vidler]

Alta V. Green

Cassville—Alta Vidler Green, widow of the late Morton H. Green, died in her home here Feb. [18?], 1944, following a long illness.

She was the daughter of Rufus R. and Martha Babcock Vidler, and was born in Hubbardsville Feb. 2, 1888. She married Morton H. Green on Oct. 16, 1907 in Madison.

They made their home in Hubbardsville and North Brookfield where MR. Green was superintendent of the Dairyman's League station. In 1932 they moved to Cassville where he took charge of the Stone Road milk station.

She was a member of the Universalist Church, Hubbardsville, and of the Ladies of Maccabees, [?].

Surviving are her mother, Mrs. [Alta?] Vidler, Cassville; a daughter, Mrs. Marion Mortis, Cassville; three sisters, Mrs. G. C. [?], Chicago; Mrs. R. J. [Morton?], Hubbardsville, and Mrs. S. [?] Hudson, Hamilton; a brother, [?] Vidler, Canastota; three grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Monday at the convenience of the family. Burial will be in Hubbardsville [in Graham Cemetery].

Daily Press, Utica NY, Sat. 19 Feb 1944

[transcribed from a faded optical recognition copy]