

[Greene, Emily Starin Schram]

Emily Starin Greene

East Creek lost one of its oldest and best loved residents on Sunday morning when Mrs. Emily Starin Greene passed to the life eternal. She had been in failing health for the past six months, suffering from [a] complication of diseases and a few weeks ago became seriously ill. Deceased was born in the town of St. Johnsville, daughter of the late Henry and Maria Schram and resided in that vicinity practically all her life. She was married 55 years ago at Snells Bush to Frank H. Greene who died in 1923. Mrs. Greene was a member of the local Universalist church.

Surviving to mourn this good mother are a son Lester H. Green [sic] of Little Falls; two daughters, Mrs. Ray E. Palmer, Elmira and Mrs. Irving P. Eysaman, Syracuse; also five grandchildren. The funeral was private from the home Tuesday afternoon at 1:30, Rev. Trueman J. Menadue, pastor of St. Paul's Universalist church [in Little Falls] officiating. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
