

[Gridley, Oliver Gates]

Death of Oliver Gates Gridley

Oliver Gates Gridley, 58, well-known Onondaga County farmer, died at 1:30 o'clock Saturday morning at his home on Fayetteville-Mycenae road. Mr. Gridley was born on a farm near Cazenovia, January 11, 1865, eldest of four sons of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Webster Gridley. He was a member of First Universalist Church of Syracuse, Fayetteville Lodge, F. & A.M., Fayetteville Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, and was past master of Fayetteville Grange. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Lillian Gregg Gridley; three sons, Gates, Gregg and Daniel Gridley, and three daughters, Miss Pauline Gridley, Miss Arlene Gridley and Miss Beatrice Gridley.

Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday afternoon and burial was made at Fayetteville.

Mr. Gridley was well known here and had many warm friends who join his family in mourning his death.

Madison County Times, Chittenango NY, Fri. 24 Aug 1923

Transcribed on 19 Jun 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY