PERSONALS.

—At her home, 14 Greenwood court, Thursday afternoon, Lois Oatley Griffith, daughter of Lyman Oatley and Sarah Ann Rathbun, answered the final summons. The departed was born in the town of Verona April 29, 1842, and came to this city with her parents 12 years later. Her marriage to Isaac J. Griffith took place July 29, 1869. Mrs. Griffith in her early life was a member of the Society of Friends. For years she had been a member of the Church of the Reconciliation [Universalist] and of the Ladies' Aid Society connected with that church. She was a woman of many splendid qualities of heart and mind and had the friendship of all who knew her. She leaves besides her husband, a son, Percy E. Griffith; a brother, George W. Oatley, and a grandson, Robert Backster, all of this city. The funeral will be held to-day from her late home, Rev. Mr. [George Cross] Baner, of the Church of the Reconciliation, officiating. Relatives will act as bearers and interment will be made in Forest Hill Cemetery.
