

[Griswold, Orr]

DEATH OF ORR GRISWOLD

Orr Griswold, a well known and respected resident of Chemung county, who resided about one mile from Elmira, died at 12:30 o'clock Friday morning from a stroke of paralysis which he suffered about two weeks ago. He was sixty-four years of age.

Besides a widow, Mr. Griswold is survived by two step children, Elsie A. Hammond and Chauncey B. Hammond; two sisters, Mrs. Mordecai Casson, of Addison and Mrs. Charles Buckley, of Osceola, Pa.; three nephews, William Davis of Elmira, James and Mordecai Casson, of Addison; one niece, Mrs. William Greatsinger, of Southport.

He had a number of relatives in Sayre and Athens and was well known throughout the Valley.

The funeral was held at his late residence at three o'clock Sunday afternoon and was in charge of the Masonic Lodge, of which the deceased had been a member for forty years. The Rev. William A. Kelly, pastor of the Athens Universalist church, officiated.
