

[Guile, Marcus]

MARCUS WILLIAM GUILLE

Marcus William Guile passed away Monday morning, October 12, 1936, at the Masonic home in Utica, where he had resided for the past six months, from the effects of angina pectoris.

Marcus William Guile, only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Guile, was born May 4, 1872, in Norwich, where he grew to manhood. He was twice married. His first wife, Miss Ola Aylesworth of Maple Grove, passed away in 1907. To them were born two sons and a daughter, the latter of whom died recently. Later, Mr. Guile was married to Miss Cora Halbert of Gilbertsville, who survives him as do their several children.

Mr. Guile spent much of his life as a lumberman in Morris, Sidney and New Berlin. He also operated a farm for a time. He was highly respected by all who knew him and leaves a wide circle of friends.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Cora Guile of Sidney; a daughter, Miss Helen Guile of Sidney; four sons, Henry Guile of New Berlin, William Guile of South Edmeston, Marcus and Sheldon Guile of Sidney; and five grandchildren, to all of whom sincere sympathy will be extended.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. F. [Frederick] G. Leonard, pastor of the Universalist church were held at Sloan's funeral parlors Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Masonic services at the grave in the new part of Hillington cemetery, conducted by the members of Tienuderrah lodge, F. & A.M., of which he had long been a member.
