

[Gunnison, Julia Ann]

DIED, In East Bloomfield, on the 22d of Feb., Julia Ann, consort of Orrin Gunnison, in he 28th year of her age. After a long and distressing illness of the pulmonary complaint, she yielded her spirit to God who gave it, in calmness, and without a single fear. For many years she had been a firm and unshaken believer in the impartial and universal grace of God, under the holy influence of which faith she bore her sufferings with Christian patience... Possessed of a sweet disposition, she was beloved by all who knew her, and her loss is deeply regretted by a large circle of warm friends, and afflictingly so, by the family of the deceased. Her funeral was attended by the writer, on the Sunday following, at the Universalist church in Bristol, where a large congregation was assembled...
